Market Weekly brings you a weekly round up of all the latest news and views from our independent analysts as well as details of our upcoming events and new product launches.

Lyxor Asset Management has slashed the fees on two major Exchange Traded Funds as part of a continued drive to improve efficiency. This latest move sees the annual Total Expense Ratio (TER) on our FTSE 100 ETF halve from 0.30 per cent to just 0.15 percent, making it one of the most competitive ETFs on this Index by TER.

Similarly, Lyxor has lowered the TER on the S&P 500 ETF from 0.2 per cent to 0.15 per cent, marking a reduction of 0.05 per cent. This again makes Lyxor one of the lowest cost ETFs for this Index according to the TER.

ASSET ALLOCATOR WITH DAVID STEVENSON

In his second market snapshot report, David Stevenson looks at the make up and performance of the MSCI World Index, an index he describes as a "mainstream and widely used alternative to the FTSE 100 and its US equivalent - the S&P 500".
